

Programming Inside Out

Part II:

Join the Team Designing a Program to Maintain Family Ties of Parents in Jail

1. Meet the other team members
2. Hear their ideas
3. Add your own

Family Relationships Program Planning

- Phase One

- Fathers in Jail and family members
- Series of planning meetings

- Phase Two

- Mothers in Jail + family members

- Phase Three

- Fathers & mothers after release

- Phase Four

- Correctional staff and service providers

Viewing “Family Ties”

Phase One planners assess

- impact on incarcerated fathers and their children
- impact on “significant others”
- the importance of family ties
- their own losses
- essentials for success

An invitation to join the planning

- What stood out in the film
- What needs were most critical
- What solutions will be effective
- What programs you've seen should Pittsburgh replicate for more information. . .

Claire A. Walker, PhD

Pittsburgh Child Guidance
Foundation

425 Sixth Avenue, Suite 2460

Pittsburgh, PA 15219

(412) 434-1665

pcgf@smartbuilding.org